

VIENNA UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY

Reference

Vienna, Austria

General:

Concept/Product:

Building Type: Research buildings/Laboratory, Schools/Educational establishments

Client Bundesimmobiliengesellschaft m.b.H.

Architecture Architekten Hiesmayr Gallister Kratochwil

Completion: 2009 - 2010

Description:

The 'Lehartrakt' is the new research and teaching building at the Vienna University of Technology. After 3 years of construction, the building was inaugurated on 30.10.2010. Lindner fitted coupled window constructions, rainscreen cladding and curtain walls, stick systems, partially combined with fixed soundproof glass walls, exterior ceilings, escape balconies and stainless steel portals.

Completed Works:

Rainscreen cladding

Metal surface

Glass surface

Curtain wall

Stick system

Window units

Structural glazing facade

Special facade

