

GERMAN NATIONAL LIBRARY

Reference

Leipzig, Germany

General:

Concept/Product:

Building Type: Library

Client: Sächs. Immobilien- und Baumanagement Leipzig I

Architecture: Gabriele Glöckler Architektur

Completion: 2009 - 2011

Description:

The fourth extension of the German National Library in Leipzig provides a depot for the inventory of the library and houses the book museum and the music archive. Lindner fitted the NORTEC raised floor system with appicated natural stone to the large exhibition hall at a size of 1.350m². Planning and realization: Gabriele Glöckler / ZSP-Architects.

Completed Works:

Raised floor systems

NORTEC

Hollow floor systems

FLOOR and more[®] power

FLOOR and more[®]

CAVOPEX

